

Friends of the Chemung County Library District
Presents
*BOOKS SANDWICHED IN FALL 2018

September 28: The President's Garden by Mushin Al-Ramli. Reviewer Dr. Thomas Seward is Professor Emeritus at Alfred University and a research scientist at Corning Incorporated. The novel is a tragedy about love, death and injustice in the Iraqi setting.

October 5: She Has Her Mother's Laugh by Carl Zimmer. Reviewer Dr. Mila Meir holds a doctorate in Psychology and Philosophy from Boston University. This book is about the powers and potential of heredity.

October 12: Joan of Arc by Mark Twain. Reviewer James Hare is a former Elmira mayor and councilperson, and a retired history teacher. Mark Twain was reluctant to have Joan of Arc serialized, because it was not what his public expected of him.

October 19: Murder on the Marginal Way by Anthony Pucci. Reviewer Anthony Pucci is a former English teacher at Notre Dame High School and past President of Friends of the CCLD. This book centers on a visiting English teacher on vacation in Ogunquit, Maine.

All reviews are held Fridays from 12:00 - 1:00 PM at the Steele Memorial Library Auditorium, 101 E. Church Street, Elmira, NY 14901.

A light sandwich lunch may be purchased for $4.00 or bring your own. If schools are closed due to inclement weather, the book review will be rescheduled.
