Friends Welcomes Pat Silvernail, CCLD Trustee Liaison

When I was fifteen, my first regular job was in the Depew Branch of the local library. I worked there until I was twenty, then got married, and graduated from the University of Buffalo with a degree in Chemistry. I followed my husband around in the Army for a few years, then returned to Buffalo and worked at Roswell Park Hospital while he finished his degrees. In 1974, we moved to Queens and then Long Island, and had three children. Two of them worked at the Oceanside Library, the third worked for a caterer. When I went back to work, I taught in a pre-school and was an educator at The Goudreau Museum of Mathematics in Art and Science. During this time period, I read and collected many different books. Every new venture required new learning for me, and since my children had many different interests, they needed books too. Books and libraries are an important part of our lives.

In 2006, we retired and moved to this area. I had to donate many of my books since, as my husband pointed out, we were paying by the pound to move them. One of the first groups I joined here was the Big Flats Library Advocates, and one of my jobs is to maintain displays of books and collections in the library showcase. Eventually I was asked to be a CCLD Trustee and since we actually live in the Town of Catlin, I represent Catlin and Veteran. When someone was needed to be a liaison to the Friends of CCLD, I volunteered. It's a wonderful group of hardworking people striving to serve all of the library needs of people in Chemung County and beyond.
